By 1500 Europe had found a way to reach the Americas, and the world was no longer divided into two parts. The discovery of the Americas by Christopher Columbus in 1492 opened the way for European exploration and settlement. The Americas were rich in natural resources, and the discovery of gold and silver led to a great influx of European settlers. The Americas were also rich in natural resources, and the discovery of gold and silver led to a great influx of European settlers. The Americas were also rich in natural resources, and the discovery of gold and silver led to a great influx of European settlers.
